

Osama AbuSalah

Academic Rank

Lecturer

Qualifications

- Master of Business Administration (MBA) with Concentration in International Business (2010) (GPA: 3.86/4)
Pittsburg State University (PSU), Kelce College of Business, Kansas, USA
- Bachelor of Science in Biomedical Technology (2003) (GPA: 4/5)
King Saud University (KSU), Applied Medical Science College, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia
- Certified Lecturer for Innovation & Entrepreneurship Program (2017)
Stanford University, California, USA

Courses Taught (Last five years)

- Innovation and Entrepreneurship

Professional Experience

AJMAN UNIVERSITY, COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION ▪ Ajman, UAE

Coordinator of General Education Program (GEP), Head of GEP Council 2019 - Present

Lecturer 2017 - Present

BRITISH COUNCIL ▪ Amman, Jordan

Business Development Manager - B2B 2016

AL-MAWARID PHARMA ▪ Amman, Jordan

Team Leader 2012-2016

PITTSBURG STATE UNIVERSITY, ECONOMIC AND FINANCE DEPARTMENT ▪ Kansas, USA

Graduate Teaching Assistant 2009-2010

ALMARFA MEDICAL ▪ Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

Business Unit Manager 2007-2008

Product Specialist 2004-2007

Committees Work

- Head of GEP Council
- AU curriculum committee
- AU effectiveness committee
- Board of Management for AU innovation center

Honors and Awards

- Phi Kappa Phi Honor Award

Other Contributions and Achievements

- Landed a $240K fund to AU from Stevens initiative for the purpose of holding a COIL exchange program within GE courses
- Chosen to serve as an ambassador on MOE-Stanford university innovation and entrepreneurship Initiative
- Chosen to be part of Cohort 2 MOE-Stanford university innovation and entrepreneurship Initiative.
- Delivered many workshops in-house and to the industry.